

West Plains Youth Services

By: Kolod Aljohani – Kendal Cler

Overview

- Prior Experience
- Goals & Objectives
- The Need
- WPYS Background
- The Work Process
- Challenges
- Highlight
- Reflection

Prior Experience

- Kendal:

- Worked in teams
- Live client

- Kolod:

- Worked in teams
- Non-Profit Organizations

Goals & Objectives

– Personal

- Improve communication
- Improve planning skills
- Understand proposal writing
- Improve research skills

– Project Goals

- Understand Need Statement
- Organization language
- Understand WPYS goals
- Completed proposal

The Need

- Poverty is high
- Youth grow quickly
- Clothing is a necessity

Children below poverty level:

Cheney, Washington: 22.4%

State: 15.0%

Children below poverty level:

Airway Heights, Washington: 35.2%

State: 15.0%

Children below poverty level:

Medical Lake, Washington: 11.1%

State: 15.0%

WPYS Background

- Aims to help West Plains youth
- Clothing donations
- Events
- Life Skills Workshops
- Kenna's Closet

The Work Process

- Research
- Weekly meetings
- Outside collaboration
- Sectional Writing
- Revisions

West Plains
Youth Services

The Project:
Kenna's – Retail store

Contact Person:
Jana Beals

The Project Duration:
March 2018 – February 2019

Amount of Support Requested:
$10,000

The Project Abstract:
This project will help the youths from the west plains area to have unlimited access to quality clothing, accessories, and school supplies. This access will help them to gain self-respect and move the youths forward to reach their goals.

The Organization Name:
West Plain Youth Services

The Organization Address:
Cheney, WA, USA

Challenges

- Scheduling meetings
- Grant recipient matches
- Specifics for WPYS and Recipient

Highlight

- The Need Statement

- Understand the community
- Awareness of the issue
- Finding possible solutions
- Most important part of the proposal

Reflection

- Understand the key features of a proposal
- Distinguish different types of proposals
 - Research
 - Teamwork
 - Specifics
 - Putting it together

Thank You

West Plains
Youth Services